

325 HOTELS

Hail the industry giants!
Scale matters, and the world's biggest hotel companies continue to find traditional and new ways to expand their empires.

By JEFF WEINSTEIN, EDITOR IN CHIEF

New brand development, M&A and extensions into non-traditional business models continue to dominate the headlines among the world's leading hotel companies. While Marriott International sorted through its acquisition of Starwood, the likes of Wyndham Hotel Group and AccorHotels found growth in 2017 through acquisition and brand extension (Wyndham acquired La Quinta, Accor launched hostel brand Joe&Jo and took stakes in 25hours and Banyan Tree).

There was little movement among the top 10 listings of the Corporate 300 and Consortia 25, with Marriott outpacing its nearest competitor, Hilton, by almost 250,000 rooms. On the pages ahead, follow our latest rankings to best understand the size and scope of what continues to be a growing marketplace.

ABOUT THE RANKING

Data for HOTELS 325 is gathered through an online survey completed by hotel company contacts. Individuals are asked to report the number of guestrooms and hotels in operation system-wide as of December 31, 2017. Companies that do not respond are subject to an estimate through public records, previous years' data, industry sources and independent research.

In some cases, rooms and hotels are counted more than once because HOTELS chooses to separately report data from owner-operators, managers and franchisors on the same list. Thus, a single property that is owned by one party, managed by another and branded by a third would be counted three times. Furthermore, this ranking omits companies that exclusively or overwhelmingly own hotels; only companies that also manage, own and operate, or franchise hotels are included. As a result, REITs and private equity companies are excluded.

NOTEWORTHY CHANGES

- The biggest change to this year's ranking is the separation of Carlson Rezidor Hotel Group's (now Radisson Hotel Group) portfolio from its owner, HNA Group. A separate HNA listing includes its owned and operated hotel portfolio.
- Several listings reflect mergers and acquisitions made in 2017. However, deals made early in 2018 are not reflected in this year's ranking. For example, La Quinta Inns & Suites has its own listing, as it was not acquired by Wyndham until this year.
- Some groups made significant jumps or falls in the rankings (Club Med jumping to 34 from 62, for example) due to inaccurate reporting in previous years.
- Several new groups joined the listing, especially those from China such as Zhuyou Hotel Group and Anhui Gujing Hotels Development Co.
- Some companies have rebranded in 2018, but the new names will not be reflected until next year. For example, London-based hotel management company Redefine|BDL Hotels in May 2018 rebranded as RBH.
- Hotel companies that have sold stakes but remain autonomous (AccorHotels' stakes in Rixos and Banyan Tree, for example) still maintain their own rankings.
